

Welcome to One Voice

... singing the beauty and power of diversity

Mission – One Voice, an inter-racial community chorus in Richmond, Virginia, performs excellent choral music for the community and provides artistic and educational resources to promote the work of racial reconciliation.

Through its music, membership and outreach programs, One Voice, works toward healing and racial reconciliation between Americans of African and European descent.

Vision – One Voice shall be recognized as a model of the enriching power of choral music to bring together people historically separated by racial tensions.

WELCOME

Whether you perform only one concert or every concert, you're always part of One Voice! Welcome home to those members returning after having "sat out" a season (more or less)! It's so great to have you back!

It's also great to welcome still more members to our chorus. Our latest "newbies" are:

Sopranos Ida Dymant, Millie Gretz and Bobbie Moore; and Altos Mary Gleaton, Pat Mays, and Mary Simon! Welcome all!

Don't forget! We have TWO regular rehearsals this week!

Monday, September 26 - Chamberlayne Baptist Church

Friday, September 30 - Chamberlayne Baptist Church

Gather in the sanctuary. Directions to Chamberlayne Baptist are available on our website: www.onevoicechorus.org See you there!

Don't Forget When Signing in...

1. On the sign-in sheet, place a check mark or the letter "P" in the appropriate box by your name.
2. Take your Name Tag and put it on so that others may get to know who you are!
3. If you were not at the last rehearsal, pick up music that may have been distributed. Giving your music number speeds up the process!

Purchasing / Borrowing MUSIC PACKETS

If you have not yet paid the $20 music/participation fee, sign in at the appropriate table when you arrive and then go to the TENOR Sign-In Table where Carolyn Thompson will assist you.

If you are borrowing music, we ask that you NOT make any markings on the music and NOT put your name on the folder containing it. All borrowed music must be returned at the end of each rehearsal. If purchasing a music packet poses a hardship, please do not hesitate to let us know. Every effort will be made to assist you! Thank you!
